CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL AND BABY CONTEST WAS SUCCESS

The festival and contest at the I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday evening, given by the Yeomen lodge, was a grand success; a very large crowd was present and judging by the applause everyone enjoyed themselves.

In the prettiest baby contest little Josephine Dickey took first prize with Max Sherriff Lohman a close second. It was with difficulty that the judges made the decision as all babies entered in the contest were above the average. John Geip, Wm. Sherer and Mrs. Blackaby were the judges.

The children's entertaining contest was preceded by an instrumental trio, by three young ladies, Misses Hagar, Wilkerson and Miller. The winners of prizes as best entertainers were as follows:

Boy, under 8 years, Leo Ellis.
Girl, under 8 years, Evelyn Noel.
Boy over 8 years, Harold Dow.
Girl over 8 years, Andrey Ellis.

Others on the program were: Germain Henry, violin; Firman Upham, reading; Daisy Ellis, reading; Helen Lindenmann, solo; Vera Montague, reader; Naomi Upham, reading; Alice Glem. The judges on the program were: Mr. Edgar Lohman, Mr. Anthon and Miss Seals.

While the judges were making their decision Joseph Suter told one of his famous bear stories about the Serre mountains where the trees grew so tall it took two men and a boy to see their tops, which was enjoyed by all. Joseph Suter always suits them all right.

After the program all children taking part were given a box of candy neatly tied with ribbon. All children present were given a treat.
